14 Offense charged: Pharmacy Robbery

15 Date of Detention Hearing: August 15, 2007

16 The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and 17 based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds
18 that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure 19 the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

20 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

21 1. Defendant has been indicted on a charge of Pharmacy Robbery. The AUSA
22 proffers that the offense is alleged to involve the daytime robbery of a Rite-Aid store by defendant

01 and co-defendants, during which this defendant carried and showed a firearm. According to case
02 agents, the defendant was arrested at his mother's house. It allegedly took defendant and his co-
03 defendants approximately 30 minutes to surrender to law enforcement officials. The search
04 warrant executed on the premises revealed one pellet gun, one loaded .25 Caliber Semi-Automatic
05 firearm, and 1,600 Oxycotin pills.

06         2. Defendant's criminal history includes an outstanding felony warrant for charges
07 pending in Skagit county that originated in 2002 but were filed in 2006. The warrant was issued
08 for failure to appear at a court appearance. Defendant's criminal history includes numerous failures
09 to appear for court hearings and failures to comply with probation. A condition of a sentenced
10 imposed in a minor in possession charge in San Juan county was that he have no contact with 11 Randon Gilfillan, a co-defendant in this case.

12         3. The defendant is associated with two social security numbers. He does not have 13 a stable residence or employment history.

14         4. The defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to lack of stable residence and 15 employment, a significant history of failing to appear, including failure to report to serve jail terms;
16 a history of failing to comply with court orders, outstanding misdemeanor and felony warrants,
17 a pending felony case, and a history of controlled substance use. The defendant poses a risk of 18 danger due to the nature of the instant offense, a pending felony case and the nature of those
19 charges, the alleged use of illegal controlled substances, a history of failing to comply with court
20 orders and criminal history.

21         5. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 22 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 15th day of August, 2007.

Mary Alice Theiler
United States Magistrate Judge
